Introduction

The world is experiencing a total turn-around and development, which has, in turn, changed our thinking, and actions and impacted our daily activities. The financial sector has improved from a centralized one to a more decentralized version where individuals have total control over their money. The real estate sector has moved from the traditional phase where investment in properties has been limited to geographic locations, and it is more accessible to all investors around the world through the improvement in technology and the innovation of the blockchain network. NFTs that were previously minted on the blockchain network, purchased, and stored for bragging rights have been improved upon and are now used in the metaverse, play2earn games, and are no longer used as objects of admiration. Tourism is another sector responsible for massive movement from one region to another.

Research according to The United Nations World Tourism Organization (UNWTO), on the world's tourists shows 1.4 billion international arrivals per year. And according to Statista, travel, and tourism's direct contribution to the world's GDP was approximately 5.81 trillion US dollars in 2021. In addition, technology has impacted the world we live in today and the gaming sector is not left unturned. Some years back, GameVerse lovers traveled to Marina Bay (Singapore), Macao, Las Vegas, Reno, and Monte Carlo to have real-life experience of GameVerse games. According to Mapping Megan, Macao overtook Las Vegas as the most visited region for GameVerses, and revenue from gaming accounts for 50 percent of their economy. Also, 1,000,000 GameVerse lovers from China visit Australia yearly.

However, it is against this backdrop that the experts of MaziMatic developed an ecosystem that would bring the GameVerse world's best location and all-around entertainment to all users irrespective of their location using the 21st-century technologies (VR and Metaverse). With MaziMatic, users have access to all GameVerse games which will give real-life experience to users. All MaziMatic GameVerse games are streamed live on the metaverse or mobile version. No algorithmic-based or preprogrammed. Users can play privately; choosing to play with selected people, their friends, or join a random table.

Our Vision

The vision of the brand MaziMatic is to create an entertainment universe where users find solace from all hurdles of life, have unlimited fun, and earn real-life cash while playing games, attending parties, meeting with their influencers, and visiting their desired location right at the comfort of their homes. With GameVerseVerse, users can enjoy a wide array of GameVerse games worldwide and earn while having fun; the PartyVerse is a place for all social gatherings, where users party, meet with other users and have fun.

The Influencer Verse allows users to meet with their favorite influencers, attend their shows, have real-time chats with them, or hang out. Also, AdventureVerse is where users access their desired location and have unlimited fun.

Industrial Problem

No doubt that the world has witnessed a series of advancement due to blockchain innovation; the gaming industry has grown rapidly and witnessed increasing revenue over the years, but there are various problems that users of these innovations are facing that has limited their participation, and these problems are.

Algorithm/programmed outcomes

There are numerous GameVerse gaming platforms in the world leveraging blockchain technology. Still, most of them are algorithm based or are based on pre-programmed outcomes, which results in massive losses to their users. These mechanisms are structured to concentrate wealth in the hands of the developers at the expense of their users.

The algorithm is structured to behave in a particular way that will always ensure that the developers make massive gains, and many punters lose. This is a major problem faced by GameVerse game lovers that do not have the luxury of wealth to navigate to the world's best GameVerse houses around the world.
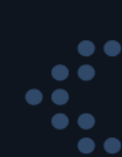

Cost of Visiting World's GameVerse House

According to budgetyourtrip.com; a trip to Macau for a month cost $36,713 aside from the cost of transportation from the place of origin to the destination.

Having real-life experience of GameVerse games in top regions of the world like Las Vegas, Macau, Australia, Singapore, and other locations is highly expensive and might cost a fortune. The cost of navigating to the GameVerse game venues has discouraged most GameVerse lovers.

NFTs without Utility

NFTs have, over the years, served as an object of admiration and bragging rights for owners, and periods after acquiring these set of NFTs, they keep losing value, and after a while, they become irrelevant, and selling them off becomes a problem to the holders.

Cost and risk of accessing the world's best tourist location

The cost and risk associated with traveling to the world's GameVerse locations like Las Vegas, Singapore, Macau, and others are on the increasing side. With the advent of the covid-19, the prices of goods and services have doubled.

Calculating the costs and risks associated with moving from one region to the other, the vast majority of GameVerse game lovers resort to the pre-programmed or algorithm-based ones.

Security issue

The security issue is one of the biggest challenges facing blockchain innovations. The lack of good security opens blockchain innovation to hackers, hijacks projects, and makes do with investors' hard-earned money.

Therefore, the security of blockchain projects is paramount to all investors, and lack of which amounts to a loss of investment.
